Benedictine Auxiliary Donates $20,000 to Support Cancer Services

Kingston, N.Y. – May 24, 2016 – On May 18, at its annual Fashion Show, In The Pink, the Benedictine Auxiliary presented a check for $20,000 to the Benedictine Health Foundation in support of cancer services at the Mary's Avenue Campus of HealthAlliance of the Hudson Valley. Dr. Camilo Torres, Radiation Oncologist, and Dr. Zoe Weinstein, Cancer Liaison Physician and Surgeon, accepted the check on behalf of HealthAlliance.

Over 150 guests enjoyed the event at Wiltwyck Golf Club featuring guest Master of Ceremonies, Rich Mathews, and music by Michael Dell.

The Benedictine Auxiliary has contributed over $1 million to improve health care technology and enhance the care of patients at the hospital. "We are very pleased to continue our support of HealthAlliance and the exceptional cancer services they provide for our community," stated Loretta Landsman, Auxiliary President.
